

Easy Deployment

Installing Virtel takes just a few hours, and deploying it is as simple as pointing client web browsers to installation-defined URLs, with nothing to install or support on the client or desktop. And because VWA retains 3270 TE ergonomics, the interface is familiar and no retraining is required.

Enhanced Security

VWA is more secure than telnet/TN3270 TE solutions and supports industry-standard IP security technologies such as SSL (AT-TLS) encryption, PROXY, and SSO. And because clients remain data-free, your organization risks no corporate data exposure in cases of loss or theft. VWA also supports a range of custom security features, including terminal-transaction-printer control, biometrics, and more.

Device and OS Agnostic

VWA's key virtue is its ability to enable convenient mainframe access from any device. It works instantly and automatically with any browser, on any browser-enabled device and any operating system. The limitless compatibilities include Internet Explorer®, Edge, Safari, Firefox, Chrome, Opera, all versions of Windows® (including Windows 10), Linux, AIX, UNIX, OS X and iOS, Android, Symbian and more.

“

Modernizing our 3270 terminal emulator
with Virtel Web Access gave us more freedom and saved us 80%”

To Learn More

To learn more about Virtel Web Access and see how it's helped clients such as PSA Peugeot Citroën and P&V Assurance, visit our video library at sdsusa.com/virtel/webaccess

About SDS

Founded in 1982, Software Diversified Services™ (SDS) supports over 20 z/OS, MVS, VSE, and VM mainframe systems products for hundreds of enterprises worldwide. SDS was rated number one in technical support by the prestigious IBEX Bulletin and is an HP Alliance ONE partner, an IBM Partner in Development, an Advanced member of IBM PartnerWorld®, and a member of the Destination z community. Learn more at sdsusa.com